

Marketing & Communications Manager

ICE Services Ltd, Kings Cross, London, N1C 4AG
Salary circa £43,000 per annum (Depending on Experience)

Formed by PRS for Music, GEMA and STIM, ICE Services Ltd is a new international company designed to simplify the process of digital music licensing across Europe and beyond, ensuring royalties are paid quickly, accurately and effectively to our songwriter, composer and music publisher customers.

We operate in a fast-moving and sophisticated market and are looking for proactive, flexible, energetic people to join us in this exciting new venture. As a "start-up" in a highly fluid and complex market, ICE Services will require all of its employees to adopt a flexible, positive and entrepreneurial approach to the developing requirements of their role and responsibilities.

An exciting opportunity has become available at ICE Services for a Marketing & Communications Manager. As our Marketing & Communications Manager you will be responsible for our holistic corporate communication. The key responsibilities of the role which you will lead on are instigating and developing an integrated Marketing and Communication strategy, enhancing the ICE brand identity, raising the awareness of our services and establishing ICE as a progressive, trusted and innovative Company. Internal communication is also part of this role's responsibilities. You will be based in London but will also work at the ICE location in Berlin so travel will be expected. If you would like to know more about the role please contact us on the below email address or if you would like to see a job description, please click here.
